WILLIAM F. ADASIEWICZ, ESQ.

Bill brings a lifetime of experience in business, construction and real estate matters to Bay Laurel Law, P.C. He earned his Juris Doctor from the Peninsula Law School while running King Enterprises, General Contractor. After 35 years in that industry, he especially enjoys working with companies in the trades to help them build their businesses by guiding them to set sound policies and decisions for choice of entity, hiring, contracts, business succession and other legal matters.

Bill is a Vietnam veteran, having served in the Air Force. He has lived in Japan and several different cities in the United States. He enjoys annual trips to the Colorado wilderness, winemaking, sailing, flying and tinkering. He and Kathy, his wife of forty years, enjoy time at their country home in the Sierras and playing with their grandchildren.
